

The Here For Good Foundation (HFGF) is a not for profit organization based in South Australia and for the benefit of South Australians looking to break the cycle of poverty and disadvantage. The Foundation believes that all individuals deserve equal assistance to seek employment, financial security and gain a sense of personal success. And most importantly, everyone can expect to feel safe and supported.

Being a volunteer means more than you know

The Foundation is run by a group of professionals in a volunteering capacity. The Foundation relies heavily on the members of the community to provide skills and expertise across broad range to help deliver a number of social projects.

And you can be a part of this!

It doesn't matter if you are a student or an experienced professional or someone looking after young family at home and willing to assist, we encourage you to contribute your skills, be involved and give something back to the community in what we call 'commitment to do good'.

Digital Marketing/Graphic Design/Copy
writing, Accounting, Public relations

Skills are sought in to name a few.

Although nature of the work will be voluntary, the Foundation would like to plan based on a level of commitment from the participants as this will help with getting the work done.

In return, eligible participants will be provided with Certificate of Appreciation, Recommendation via LinkedIn, referrals. Great for resumes, supplementing education and highlighting to employers what a great person you are.

The Foundation understands that everyone's time is important and participants can either contribute remotely (after induction) or from the HFGF CBD office on Fridays. The Foundation is passionate about helping the community and looks forward to seeking your participation towards this great cause.

More information is available at Here For Good Foundation Website or email crew@hfgf.org.au for a brief chat.